

KENNETH C. COURVILLE

kcourville@brewer-law.com

EDUCATION

Legal J.D., University of Houston Law Center, 1998
Undergraduate B.S. (Political Science), University of Houston, 1994

EMPLOYMENT

Attorney, 2000-Present (David R. Brewer, Attorney at Law, PLLC, 2013 – Present)

- represented business clients with 2 to 75 employees
- defended clients in civil litigation, commercial and consumer bankruptcy proceedings, arbitration claims before FINRA and the AAA, regulatory proceedings, Texas Workforce Proceedings, IRS and US Tax Court proceedings, Comptroller of Public Accounts hearings, Department of Labor proceedings, EEOC proceedings, and FINRA and SEC examinations
- drafted credit agreements, master vendor and customer agreements, employment agreements, severance agreements, noncompete agreements, personnel manuals, commercial construction agreements, estate planning documents, and tax planned trusts
- advised on tax planning, tax structuring and tax compliance, business planning, business formation and succession planning, general securities law compliance, commercial acquisitions, commercial real estate acquisitions and dispositions, non-bankruptcy workouts, chapter 11 plans, employee benefit plans, employee benefit administrator fiduciary obligations, estate and trust administration, asset protection planning and estate planning
- collections
- probate

Courville Maddux & Abreo PLLC, 1999-2000

- general bankruptcy practice
- estate planning and probate practice
- corporate practice

Arthur Andersen LLP, 1998-1999

- Mainline tax staff analyst
- Mergers and acquisitions staff analyst

Shaw & Associates, 1993-1995

- Legal assistant, mortgage loan origination

Lone Star Bank, N.A., 1991-1993

- Note department clerk

COURT ADMISSIONS

- Admitted to practice law before all state courts, State of Texas, admitted 1998
- Member of the Bar, United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, admitted 1999
- Member of the Bar, United States Tax Court, admitted 2007

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

- State Bar of Texas