Re: Recommendation for David R. Brewer, Attorney at Law, PLLC

As a partner in the national law firm of Meyer White LLC, I am writing to recommend David R. Brewer and to encourage you to consider retaining his firm for your legal representation. Mr. Brewer has represented each of Meyer White's offices in Florida, Georgia, Texas and California regarding their real estate needs. Additionally, I have referred clients of the firm to Mr. Brewer for their real estate litigation needs in Texas. I have personally been primarily responsible for ordering and overseeing the legal work David has performed for my firm and his work for us has consistently been on time, of a high quality, and fairly billed.

David knows what it means to look out for his clients' interests and needs. He is never shy about engaging opposing counsel and he will fight for what is best for you. David's legal acumen in the real estate practice is above reproach. However, the breadth of his legal expertise extends far beyond just real estate transactions. I have no doubt that David could handle any matter before any Civil Court in Texas.

If you have need of any further information regarding Mr. Brewer's work for Meyer White LLC please do not hesitate to contact me and I will be happy to speak with you personally.

Respectfully,

David Sewell
