

DAVID H. FUCHSMAN
Of Counsel
dfuchsman@brewer-law.com
(281) 359-8686

Since January 2020, Mr. Fuchsman has served as Of Counsel for David R. Brewer, Attorney at Law, PLLC. Separately, Mr. Fuchsman also serves as General Counsel for a well-established Houston based manufacturing company.

Before relocating to Texas, David served for 15 years as Court appointed Magistrate for the Montgomery County, Ohio, Common Pleas Court and in the final eight years held the title of Chief Magistrate. The Ohio Common Pleas Court is analogous to the District Court in Texas. As Chief Magistrate, he presided over both jury trials and trials to the bench. He also served as the liaison between the elected judges and the bar, overseeing the Court's mediation program.

Prior to his Court appointment, David worked in the law firm of Izenon, Fuchsman and Brinkman and was also the City Prosecutor for the City of Trotwood, Ohio, and for the City of Vandalia, Ohio.

Mr. Fuchsman has substantial experience in multiple areas of law, with particular expertise in:

- Commercial Litigation
- Plaintiff's and Defense-Oriented Litigation
- Business Entity Formation
- Contract Drafting and Review
- Human Resources and Employment Law
- Real Estate Law including Landlord/Tenant Law
- Estate Administration

Bar Membership:

- Licensed in Ohio since November of 1983
- Licensed in Texas since December 2016
- Admitted to both Federal Bars of Ohio and Texas

Educational Background:

- Graduated from the University of Dayton School of Law with a Juris Doctorate in June of 1983.
- Graduated from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Va. Tech) in June of 1980.

Outside of practicing law, Mr. Fuchsman enjoys bicycling for physical activity, reading periodicals and watching sports of all kinds. He has also served as Synagogue President and President of the Board of Directors of a private school. David has been married for 31 years and has three adult children.